PROJECT NO. 156

"Drover's Inn"

This house located in Lincoln County, Moscow, Missouri was built in the year 1842 by Joel Blanks a pioneer to the State of Missouri from Virginia.

He, at one time, held the office of Sheriff of this community.

The house was used, for a time, as a Post Office and an Inn.

It is located at the Gateway of Northeast Missouri. Property now belongs to Charles Meyer.

This is a two story brick structure.

Information received from "History of Lincoln County".
